

PAPER AND CARD BOARD

Newspapers, magazines, books, exercise books, photocopies, clean food boxes, paper bags, card board boxes for pasta-rice-salt and cereals. All medium and large sized cardboard packages carefully folded and broken down into smaller pieces.

Not introduced: used paper towels or anything contaminated with foodstuffs, laminated ticket or plastic magazine covers.

ORGANIC WASTE

Leftover food (cooked or raw), fruit or vegetables waste, garden waste, dirty paper towels, small wooden containers, ash off, cut flowers etc.

MULTIMATERIAL WASTE

Water and soft drinks bottles, glass or iron jars, plastic or glass bottles and containers, empty detergent and shampoo bottles, trays and containers (including in polystyrene), cling film, drinks cans, tins and metal containers that have been emptied and washed, aluminium food trays and foil, polystyrene or plastic food trays, tetrapak, plastic plats and cups (not cutlery), plastic bags (not biodegradable), plastic films for packaging, empty containers of yogurt and dessert, plastic containers, plastic plates/cups, all containers marked with symbol AL, small items in iron or aluminium.

Not introduced: steel or alluminium containers labelled as this , motorvehicle parts and accessories, plastic cutlery, toys, DVDs, CDs, video cassettes, music cassettes.

NOT RECYCLABLE WASTE

All the waste that doesn't be included in recyclable waste: plastic cutlery, toys, DVDs, CDs, video cassettes, music cassettes, sponges, diapers, pens, vacuum cleaner bags, carpets, paper chemistry, lipstick, toothpaste, chemistry/oil/plastificated paper, packaging polystyrene, plastic pipe, X-rays.

Not introduced: steel or alluminium containers labelled as this ,

CLOTHING AND MEDICINES

Good clothings can be throw into yellow containers near the Churches or parking.

Expired drugs must be throw into containers near the pharmacies or districts office.

OTHER WASTE

Mattresses, cookers, refrigerators, conditioners, washing machine, dishwashers, freezers, electric ovens, cathode or LCD or plasma televisions, mobile phone, printers, computers, electrical games, fans, hair dryers, cartridges for printer, vegetables oils, low-power and neon lamps, batteries must be brought at the Ecological Stations

